

Transition Worksheet

1. What is the goal of transitions?
2. What transition would be the best option for contrasting paragraphs?
 - a) while
 - b) Even more,
 - c) Either way
 - d) At least
3. What would be a way to emphasis a point?
 - a. Even more,
 - b. However
 - c. In either case,
 - d. To begin with,
4. Name two types of transitions.
5. What transitions would be good for concluding paragraph?
 - a. To summarize
 - b. Anyhow
 - c. Previously
 - d. Seeing that
6. True or False: Good transitions help the paper become disconnected.
7. True or False: Every paragraph should start with the same transition.
8. True or False: Not every paragraph has to start with a transition.
9. What is one way to figure out which transition to use?
10. Make a connection on dogs and cats using the transitions we have given you.

1. Make the essay flow better.
2. While
3. Even more,
4. Time, Comparison, clarification, contrast, cause, effect
5. To summarize
6. False
7. False
8. False
9. Find main points of each paragraph and then see how they are intertwined.
10. Depends on Person

Ex. While dogs are cuter, cats are smarter.